Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), a machine for preparing and dispensing documents relating to financial transactions, the machine comprising a manually operable input unit for input of data and operating commands, said input unit being external to and coupled through the dispenser housing; a document printer unit for printing readable information, including a monetary value, on document forms based on data inputted at said input unit, wherein said document printer unit is contained entirely within the dispenser housing and comprises an optical reader for reading barcode information on said document forms, said reader being operative to verify proper functioning of said printer unit by reading a barcode that is printed on said document forms by said printer inside the dispenser prior to dispensing; an internal control unit, wherein said control unit is contained entirely within said dispenser housing and is directly electrically coupled to the input unit and the printer unit for controlling operation of the printer unit in response to data and commands inputted at the input unit, and wherein the control wherein said dispenser is a stand-alone, self-contained dispenser, the control unit is operative to receive authorization instructions from the central location via said interface, and the control unit is operative under control of a time keeping device for blocking dispensing of printed documents when no transmission of the data stored in said memory means to a central location has occurred for a predetermined period of time or when reception of an authorization instruction from the central location has not occurred for a predetermined period of time as claimed in claim 48. Similar features are claimed
